5. PARENT/GUARDIAN STATEMENT OF INTENT

Prince of Peace Catholic School – a school of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina – is a parish school affiliated with Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Taylors, South Carolina with the principal mission of serving parish families. Catholics from other parishes and other applicants are also welcome to apply. Prince of Peace Catholic School admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities accorded or made available. Our mission is the education and formation of children in the Catholic faith with above average classroom instruction and expectations for academic and personal excellence.

Prince of Peace Catholic School observes the following priority consideration for admission with all NEW families applying for admission: active Prince of Peace parishioners, active parishioners of all other Greenville Catholic parishes, Catholics moving to Greenville for the next school year, and finally, all other applicants. See your pastor or parish bulletin for a definition of “active parishioner.”

Students with IEP’s or diagnosed learning differences must be deemed by the Principal capable of success in the school’s academic program with limited accommodations. Determinations will be made on an individual basis.

Why do you want to enroll your child at Prince of Peace Catholic School?
